

Advanced Life Support Required Equipment and Supplies (include items on BLS list)	Equipment		Protocols
	ALS Ambulance		ALS Ambulance
	YES	NO	YES	NO
Laryngoscope handle with extra batteries and bulbs
Laryngoscope blades, sizes 0; 1; 2; 3 or 4, straight (Miller); sizes 2; 3 or 4, curved, (MacIntosh)
Endotracheal tubes, sizes 2.5; 3.0; 3.5; 4.0; 4.5 5.0; 5.5 mm uncuffed or cuffed and 6.0; 7.0; 8.0 mm cuffed (2 each)
Meconium aspirator adaptor
Stylettes for endotracheal tubes, adult and pediatric
Magill (Rovenstein) forceps, adult and pediatric
End-tidal CO2 detection capability
Colorimetric (adult and pediatric) or quantitative capnometry
Intravenous catheters 14G-24G (range of 4 sizes with at least one smaller than 20 G)
Intraosseous needles or devices appropriate for children and adults
Syringes of various sizes, including tuberculin
Adult and pediatric paddles/defibrillator pads
Transcutaneous pacemaker, including adult and pediatric pads and cables (may be integrated with monitor/defibrillator)
Nebulizer
Glucometer or blood glucose measuring device
Cardiovascular medication, such as 1:10,000 epinephrine, atropine, antidysrhythmics (for example, adenosine and amiodarone), calcium channel blockers, beta-blockers, nitroglycerin tablets, aspirin, vasopressor for infusion
Cardiopulmonary/respiratory medications, such as albuterol (or other inhaled beta agonist) and ipratropium bromide, 1:1,000 epinephrine, furosemide
50% dextrose solution (and sterile diluent or 25% dextrose solution for pediatrics)
Analgesics, narcotic and non narcotic
Antiepileptic medications, such as diazepam or midazolam
Sodium bicarbonate, magnesium sulfate, glucagon, naloxone, hydrochloride, calcium chloride Bacteriostatic water and sodium chloride for injection

Verifying Signature

Date

Service Name

Date